

Where there's Smoke there's Campfires

I think I smell smoke. Is it coming from Randy's keyboard or from his ears as he frenetically writes talks for this summer's camps! With months of camps trying to figure out whether they'd be operating at all the summer, and if so, how, Randy isn't the only one scrambling to prepare. There is a lot of hope and excitement as overnight week-long camps are (probably) going to be a reality.

Some of the excitement comes from the belief that kids will be very eager to come to camp and enter in wholeheartedly as their desperate need for community finally has somewhere to go. This openness brings the potential for radical life-change as truth is brought to bear on the needs and insecurity uncovered during the pandemic.

A less transcendent but no less real cause for excitement is that many camps are in desperate shape financially, having lost more than a year's income. Randy knows of at least one camp which is short almost a million dollars of their 2020 budgeted income.

As a result, most camps are not in a position to pay speakers the honorarium they'd normally pay. While finances have never been STM's primary consideration when deciding to take a speaking engagement, the honorariums Randy will be receiving this summer are about one-third of a normal summer's income. We believe STM exists "for such a time as this". Speaking honoraria has never been our primary source of income. Two-thirds of our budget comes from faithful partners like you. If you are able to do even more to help make up the difference between what camps can pay and STM's needs, we would be so grateful.

Pray for a huge harvest of heart and life change at camps this summer. Thank you for all the ways you partner with us. We truly are ALL IN THIS TOGETHER!!!

Do Christians Need to Go to Church?

On a recent episode of Grow on the Go, Donna & Kevann talked about the spiritual practices that are in our power, so that one day we can do things beyond our current ability. Attending church includes many of these practices, but they aren't the only ones. God uses things like inconvenience to make us into the best person we can be right now! Listen in to the episode right here.
